RELEASED IN FULL

TELECON

Ambassador Dobrynin/Secretary Kissinger

December 6, 1973

5:59 PM

K: Sisco refuses to accept me these days. Now what are we going to do?
_____ even harder on the Arabs with _____.

D: No, Unfortunately I didn't see this _____. I can see the telegram today or in the morning. _____ was given instructions _____ ambassadors and differences that particular _____ especially this one word in our instructions to our _____ the American side would like to have this finished for their information how to _____ everything you said you should insist on this.
This is what the Egyptians are saying. It is all right with us. The Americans don't want to have _____.

K: We cannot get the Israelis _____.

D: Just for my information _____ very strict and very clear instructions.

K: I think by the 17th we will have them all lined up.

D: What kind of trouble are we making now?

K: Lack of attention paid to them. He is now appearing _____.

D: I think we are very much _____.

K: _____

D: Exactly. No we don't want trouble with him, as such. I think we will do you. _____. This is not the question, the question is of Security Council's open session.

K: That I have already rejected. Also mandate. He tried to get to _____ to mandate.

D: I think if you like, I am sure Mr. Gromyko _____ a nice letter.

K: I think after a two hour meeting with us the Syrians will _____ completely.
I don't know what to do with the Syrians.

D: You're leaving tonight? So early?

K: Why so early? That's a good question. B/ Because of a 6 hour time difference. It will get me in at 10:00.

D: 10:00?

K: Did you get in touch with Scowcroft?

D: Scowcroft is coming. How long are you going to stay in your office.

K: Only a couple of hours. I'll be at K. Grahams.

D: At her house?

K: At her house.

D: I can reach you there?

K: Certainly. Or you can reach me through the White House.

D: It is only 6:00. It's my expression ____ up to 10:00.

K: I'm counting on having a ____ with ____ on the day before.

D: No problem really. What do you want. I don't see any difficulties at all.

K: It makes no difference.

D: I am leaving ____.

K: I'll be glad to do it. Where was the dinner?

D: The last time it was with us here. Here in Washington.

K: That's right. I was at the Embassy.

D: We'll come to you.

K: The food would be better at your place. Well certainly, that way we won't get ____.

D: I could give it here at our Embassy. I understand the Israelis ____.
After that you will go to Spain and Lisbon?

K: Those are courtesy visits for one day. I'm seeing Lee Duc To.
